

Joseph A. Murdoch, Martha E. (Fortie) Murdoch, papa and mama, children, Blanch, Harold, and baby Vida. Looking west on Center Street in front of the old Wave Office, where papa worked. The old Heber Courthouse in the background. Mother and father of Mrs. Paul Van Wagoner.

—Submitted by Phyllis Van Wagoner

13, and 14, according to Coach Steve Sanderson, head wrestling coach at Wasatch High School. The registration will take place in the foyer of the boys gym, from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. each of those nights. The boys should come dressed to participate after registration. They would like the boys to have had a practice session in preparation for their first dual meet on Saturday, Nov. 17. The same format will be used as has been used in the past: once a week workouts at 5:30 p.m. with a dual meet on Saturday mornings at 8:30 a.m.

This program, in its seventh year, is designed for elementary aged boys. The Primary purpose is to promote fun and participation. Coach Sanderson describes the program as a "recreational program," the competition is very low-keyed. Every possible attempt is made to eliminate pressure.

The community coaches will be assisted by the high school wrestlers.

Lifesaving Class

The Wasatch Community swimming pool will begin an American Red Cross Basic Rescue and Water Safety (Jr. Lifesaving) class for boys and girls.

This popular class is held for those 11 years and older, and will include training in nonswimming rescues, CPR training, proper ways to remove those suspected of spine and neck injuries, proper ways to approach a struggling victim, proper use of floatation devices,

